To

Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Mugrai Department

Sir,

In returning herewith unaudited the Supplemental pay bill of the Mugrai Overseer for November 06, I have the honour to state that the whole salary of an acting Officer should be taken against the Department, and the post in which he is actually serving. The acting allowance claimed on behalf of V. Srinivasiah entails an increase of expenditure over the sanctioned scale. If Srinivasiah is granted an allowance of 20% of the pay of the acting appointment, his pay Rs. 20/- plus acting allowance Rs. 5/- should be charged to the Establishment of the Mugrai Overseer, in which case Gundasamy Naidu cannot get any leave allowances under Article 81 (iii) and 205 of the Mysore Service Regulations. As Jayaram Rao and Venkatarama Naik, act in separate Establishments paid from different sources viz: Sivaganga Mutt and Tirupathy Chattram their pay and acting allowances should be drawn in the Estabt bills of those institutions.

The bill may be revised accordingly and returned.

SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE,

M U Z R A I DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

In continuation of my letter No. 7329/736 dated 12th instant, I have the honour to state that Kandasamy Naidu Muzrai Overseer was already granted one month and seven days leave on Medical certificate from the 18th April to 24th May 1906. The total period of leave including the two months now granted from the 5th November last exceeds therefore three months. As his appointment is only temporary, his case falls under article 206(i) of the Mysore Service Regulations under which the maximum leave on medical certificate admissible to an officer in temporary employ is only 3 months, and this may be granted only when no substitute is required, or when his duties can be provided for without additional expense.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Memo

P. Kandasami Naidu, temporary mysi overseer was originally granted 2 months sick leave on half pay with effect from the 5th November 1940 and the following arrangements were ordered :—

(i) V. Srinivasayya to act on Rs $12\frac{1}{2} + 15$.

(ii) S. Jagannatha Rao to act on Rs 10 + 6

+ (iii) Alwi Venkatavaradayya to act on Rs 6.

But the Comptroller having pointed out that Kandasami Naidu was not entitled to full

2 months' leave on half pay, the period was treated as leave on forfeiture of full pay up to the 4th January 1907 — He has now applied for an extension of 3 months from the 5th instant. He may be granted without allowances.

2. By the treatment of the 2 months' leave on half pay as leave on forfeiture of full pay,
V. Iruniravayyar and Jayaraman Rowo received at Rs 40 and Rs 20 respectively for each of the months of November and December 1906. They may kindly be allowed to receive the same for another 3 months as I first drew them drawing.

3. For Jayaram Rowo's place on Rs 12 I beg to recommend

Sesha Iyengar who is now in receipt of Rs 8 and for the latter's place Venkata Rao whose present pay is only Rs 6.

4. For Venkata Rao's place Alur Venkatanarayana reports the above may be posted on Rs 6.

5 I would have recommended this arrangement at the very commencement, but as the leave originally granted to Kandaswami Naidu was on half pay, the present arrangement if it had been suggested then, would have given only Rs 3 to the new man — Now he gets full Rs 6; which is the amount originally intended.

6. I beg to respectfully state that both Sesha Iyengar and Venkoba Rao are very useful in the present crisis.

B. Kandasami Naidu, Mudaliar Overseer of this Office has applied for 10 days' leave. Strictly speaking, he is at present without employment, his term of office having expired on the 30th June 08. A draft order extending the period of his appointment having, as usual, been submitted for approval, the 2nd Mudaliar was pleased to direct that B. Kandasami Naidu should be ~~appointed~~ permanently provided for. The late Mudaliar Secretary's suggestions in the matter and the Councillors' orders thereon are contained on the Office Note below.

Orders are solicited on the leave applⁿ.

Subd 4th 08.

The term of Kandasami Naidu's temporary apptt expired on 30/6/08 & when a draft ~~xxxxxx~~ extending the same to 30/6/09 was submd for approval the 2nd Cr was pleased to direct that a permanent place should be found for him in connection with arrangements in the Muzrai Office & the draft was not passed.

On another file in which certain Office arrangements were suggested by the late Muzrai Secy the Councillor has been pleased to direct me to go through the file, study the requirements of the Office under present conditions & discuss the matter with him before formulating proposals. I shall take up the matter very soon, but all the same it may take some time before final orders can be passed on the question of revision. It would be rather hard on Kandasami Naidu to remain without any appointment till then & would suggest that his temporary apptt may be continued for another year, subject to any orders that may be passed in connection with the revision of the Office estt. He has applied for 10 days' leave & this can be granted only after the order continuing his temp. apptt is issued.
